

St. John the Evangelist School Honors Veterans

ST. JOHN, Indiana-October 26, 2017-St. John the Evangelist School is getting ready to celebrate its 16th Veterans Day celebration to honor the men and women that served in the United States Armed Forces. The students prepare a program which includes songs, a school band performance and readings.

At a young age children learn to play pretend as heroes. This event gives students an opportunity to meet real men and women in our local community who are heroes and have bravely defend our freedoms. "I am very excited to be celebrating this day with our students, honoring all the men and women who serve our great country and hope our students are inspired by their braveness and dedication," said Brianne Oliver, Principal at St. John the Evangelist.

Anyone who has served or is currently serving in the U.S. military is invited, along with their families, to attend the celebration.

Wednesday, November 8
